

Think of Nihonto! Talk & Performance Event

Content of the program

- "The Secret Story of the Making of the Copy of the National Treasure Sword Tachi Kitsunegasaki, the Heirlooms of the Kikkawa Clan," a lecture by the Mukansa Swordsmith of the Modern Sword Art Exhibition, Sadanao Mikami.
- Hoki-ryu Iaido demonstration by Daisuke Hayashi, a sensei of Hiroshima Misasa Dojo.
- Explanation of the Sengokunoniwa History Museum and the ruins of Motoharu Kikkawa's house by curator Naohiko Sasaki.

Date & Time: Saturday, November 25, 2023 1:00-4:00 pm

Location: Sengokunoniwa History Museum

Address: 255-1 Kaioji, Kitahiroshima-cho, Hiroshima 731-1703, Japan

Number of participants: 30

20 Japanese / 10 non-Japanese. If there are too many applications, a drawing will be held.

Admission: 3,000 yen (per person)

Language: Japanese & English

Held in Japanese: Simultaneous interpretation in English

Schedule:

- 12:30 Registration
- 1:00 Explanation of Sengokunoniwa History Museum by Naohiko Sasaki [indoor]
- 1:30 Iaido performance by Daisuke Hayashi [outdoor]
- 2:00 Explanation of Motoharu Kikkawa's house by Naohiko Sasaki [outdoor]
- 2:45 Break
- 3:00 "The Secret Story of the Making of the Copy of the National Treasure Sword Tachi Kitsunegasaki, the Heirlooms of the Kikkawa Clan" by Sadanao Mikami [indoor]
- 4:00 End

For inquiries, please contact via email at kankou@khiro.jp

Kitahiroshima-cho Tourism Agency (Shimada)

1122 Arida, Kitahiroshima-cho, Hiroshima 731-1533

Phone: +81(826)72-6908 www.kitahiro.jp